At Friends House, our foundation is built on the guiding principles of Quaker values: Simplicity, Peace, Integrity, Community, Equality, Stewardship, and Sustainability. These principles guide every aspect of our community life. We're dedicated to creating an environment that celebrates diversity, focuses on sustainable living, and encourages active participation from all residents.

Active, Engaged, Connected

Indoors, The Elephant Shop, run by our residents, is a bustling center of activity, offering eclectic items for purchase and a space for lively social interactions. With programs ranging from music and art to wellness, Friends House is dedicated to offering enriching opportunities and fostering connections within our community, ensuring to offer a welcoming and inclusive atmosphere for all.

At Friends House, dining is about more than meals; it's an experience steeped in community spirit and environmental consciousness. We pride ourselves on serving homemade food, reflecting a commitment to sustainable practices. By embracing composting and prioritizing locally sourced ingredients, we not only offer a menu with healthy options but also contribute to a healthier planet. Supporting this culinary effort is our Dining Committee, a dedicated group of residents who collaborate with our Dining Services team to design our meal offerings. Together, they ensure that every dining experience is enjoyable and inclusive of all dietary needs, truly making dining at Friends House a cornerstone of our community life.

Experience the natural beauty and tranquility of Friends House through our extensive walking trails. Nestled within our community, these trails offer the chance to immerse yourself in the serene landscapes and peaceful surroundings of our campus. Whether you prefer a leisurely stroll to reflect and unwind or a more challenging walk to invigorate your senses, our well-maintained paths provide the perfect backdrop for every pace and preference.
