

Friends House Presents

Dementia Man: A Conversation Between Life & Research

Featuring

Sam “The Dementia Man” Simon
& Dr. Cameron Camp

This powerful program marks the first-ever joint presentation by two nationally recognized voices in dementia care: Sam Simon and Dr. Cameron Camp.

Sam Simon, actor and playwright living with Alzheimer's, performs Dementia Man: An Existential Journey – his award-winning autobiographical show offering a personal and unexpectedly humorous take on life with dementia.

Dr. Cameron Camp, a globally recognized researcher, pioneered applying the Montessori method to dementia support. For over three decades, his work has bridged science and humanity, helping people live with dignity and connection.

Friday, June 20th
3:00 - 5:00 p.m.

Sandy Spring Friends School
Performing Arts Center
16923 Norwood Road
Sandy Spring, MD 20860

Refreshments will be served.

Admission is free,
but space is limited.
